

CONSTRUCTION SITE ENVIRON- MENTAL IMPACT AWARENESS

Duration: 1/2 Day

COURSE AIM

The Construction Site Environmental Awareness course will help you understand environmental management issues on site and best practice techniques and legal compliance.

CERTIFICATION

On completion Delegates successfully completing the course will receive a Frameworks Training certificate. This is valid for 5 years.

DID YOU KNOW WE ALSO OFFER THE FOLLOWING COURSES?

- Site Supervisors safety training scheme (SSSTS)
- Quallsafe L1 H&S in a construction Environment

COURSE CONTENT

Delegates will cover the following areas.

- The significance and importance of the environment.
- A basic understanding of Environmental Management Systems
- Site waste management
- Prevention of pollution and water management
- Use of energy and resources.
- Being a responsible contractor and a good neighbour - including statutory nuisance, communications, archaeology and heritage

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This course is aimed at staff employed on a construction site in varying disciplines including site operatives, managers, supervisors, site agents and those with design or purchasing responsibilities.